Frequently Asked Questions

When is camp?

We will leave Sandusky in the morning on Sunday, August 2nd and return late at night on Saturday, August 8th. Camp runs Monday–Saturday.

How do we get there?

We will be driving together in a 15–passenger van.

How many spots are available?

There are spots for 12 teens, available on a first–come, first–serve basis.

I can't afford to pay $500. Is fundraising available?

If the cost poses a problem, contact Emily (lifeteen@sanduskycatholic.org). We want to make camp accessible to everyone and will work to come up with a fundraising plan for your teen.

What's unique about Covecrest?

Covecrest provides the unique opportunity to participate in camp as a parish group. Every activity, whether it is white–water rafting or small groups during sessions is focused around participation as a parish community. This means that we will be able to follow–up on camp experiences when we come back home. Since it is run by Life Teen, the content opened up at camp comes from the theme guiding the rest of the year. Teens will be encountering topics that we will be diving into the rest of the year at Life Nights. Camp is only the beginning.

What does a week of camp look like?

Every day at camp is a little different, and every year is a little different! Campers and chaperones can expect to participate in high/low ropes, white water rafting, daily Mass, an obstacle course, powerful nightly sessions led by a dynamic host and musician, messy games, and more. It's the perfect combination of faith and fun. Teens will be led in activities and small groups by college–aged missionaries committed to helping them encounter Christ in a way that is personal and tangible.
